Small Business is Big Business and It's Happening Right Here in the Bronx!

Bronx, NY - The Bronx Small Business Development Center (SBDC) proudly hosted its 2nd Annual Celebration of Success: A Small Business Showcase on Thursday, October 23, 2025. The event brought together a vibrant crowd of Bronx entrepreneurs, community leaders, elected officials, and business supporters, all gathered to celebrate our small business awardees on their achievement.

The showcase highlighted the transformative power of small business ownership and its essential role in fueling the borough's economic growth. Attendees experienced a lively mix of networking opportunities, exhibitor resource tables, professional headshots, and B2B connections, along with the recognition ceremony, inspiring keynote address, and an innovative AI presentation designed to help small businesses learn tools to thrive in a rapidly evolving marketplace.

Distinguished Guests & Participants

The celebration was graced by an esteemed lineup of elected officials, Lehman campus officials & faculty, our partners, along with NYSBDC leadership, that reflected the borough's strong support for entrepreneurship. NY State Senator Luis Sepúlveda, Bronx Borough President Vanessa Gibson, Assembly Member Landon C. Dais, and NYSBDC State Director Sonya Smith all joined the event to honor the achievements of Bronx small business owners.

Academic leaders from Lehman College reaffirmed the institution's commitment to small business growth. The Provost and Senior Vice President Jorge Silva-Puras was joined by Interim Dean - Kimberly Kendall of the School of Continuing and Professional Studies and the Dean of the School of Business - Dene Hurley, along with other faculty, staff, and students, underscoring Lehman's dedication to innovation and preparing the next generation of entrepreneurs.

The event drew strong support from community and business leaders. Lisa Sorin, President of the Bronx Chamber of Commerce highlighted the power of unity across the borough to advance business initiatives. BIDs, Merchants Associations, and other partners joined the celebration, emphasizing their key role in the Bronx's vibrant ecosystem.
